PROVO ENTERTAINS THE STATE'S AGED

More Than Thousand "Old Folks" Are Guests of the "Garden City."

HEBER F. GRANT SINGS "FLAG WITHOUT A STAIN"

Other Unique Forms of Amusement Provided for Gathering of Old People.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, June 30.—The special train on the Salt Lake route, bearing the old folks from Salt Lake City to Provo, arrived at 10:30 o'clock and was met at the depot by a committee, a band, and 500 little girls dressed in white. As the old people alighted from the train each one was presented with a bouquet of flowers and was escorted to a carriage. Seventy vehicles were required to transfer the visitors from the depot to the stake tabernacle, where a short programme was rendered. There were on the train from Salt Lake City 1193 people who have passed the seventy-year milestone of life's journey, together with 130 attendants and train crew, making a total of 1323. Added to these were those from Provo and vicinity—726—totaling 2099 old people entertained by Provo today.

Nine of the guests were 90 years of age and over and these were given seats of honor on the rostrum of the tabernacle.

Their names and ages are as follows: Jane James, 92; George W. Slade, 92; Rachel Whipple, 91; Isaac Lewis Manning, colored, 93; Anna M. Peterson, 92; Elizabeth Babbitt, 90; James Leitch, 93; William G. Chase, 91; of Salt Lake City, and Thomas B. Clark, 90, of Provo.

Aged Are Welcomed. Services in the tabernacle were opened with a prayer by George Margretts, of Salt Lake City. The old folks' choir of Salt Lake City, with Dr. J. E. Chandler, organist, furnished the music.

In a short and neat speech Mayor C. F. Decker of Provo bid the old folks welcome and said he hoped they would enjoy every minute of the day, and assured them that the people of Provo would do their best to make the visitors and guests happy. Bishop O. H. Berg, of the first ward, chairman of the "old folks" committee, had charge of the exercises and created considerable enthusiasm in his talk on Utah and her pioneers. He said: "Utah is the home of a loyal people who are proud to be citizens of so great and glorious a nation."

The Provo apostle was introduced as Senator Smoot, who said he had been asked to make "just a short" talk; he was "proud to be the son of a pioneer," "a child of Utah."

The audience conceded the latter. The Senator avoided working himself up to a sobbing, love-sick point in attempting a peroration, but the audience would not be enthused. One of the Salt Lake visitors was heard to remark: "Why, Brother Berg can beat him a block when it comes to creating enthusiasm."

In a burst of eloquence the Senator said: "Provo is the garden city of Utah and Utah is the garden state of the nation, there is no more loyal people on the face of the earth than dwell in Utah."

Prof. A. C. Lund of the B. Y. U. rendered a solo, entitled, "Dear Old Home Land." In the afternoon, Apostle Heber J. Grant sang his favorite, "The Flag Without a Stain." Among the visitors from Salt Lake City who were accorded seats of prominence were Apostles P. M. Lyman, A. H. Lund and George S. Richards; C. E. Savage, the pioneer in such affairs, and who on this occasion was in charge of the excursion from Salt Lake; S. W. Richards, one of the few remaining surviving associates of Joseph Smith, Jr., the founder of Mormonism.

After the exercises in the tabernacle the guests were banded and in the basement of the old tabernacle, the first ward social hall and the Mozart pavilion, and over two thousand old people were given the best that Provo affords.

In the afternoon short talks were made by Apostles Lyman, Lund and Richards. Apostle Grant also talked, and he also sang; it was hard to distinguish between the talk and the sing. The day was warm and pleasant, and no accidents happened to mar the enjoyment.

RUNAWAY THREATENS LIVES OF "OLD FOLKS"

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, June 30.—Mrs. Mary Johnson, who is over 90 years of age; Mrs. William Taylor and Mrs. Nye of Salt Lake City, and Hans Zoble of Lakewood, were thrown violently from a surrey drawn by a runaway team during the entertainment of the "old folks" today, the women sustaining serious but not fatal injuries. Mrs. Johnson's left shoulder was dislocated. Mrs. Taylor was bruised about the arm, receiving a painful wound in the elbow, and Mrs. Nye was severely shaken up.

The team was being driven by Zoble and started to run when in front of the Ablander Carriage works on Fifth South street. Running a block, it collided with a telephone pole brace, disengaging itself and demolishing the surrey, the occupants of which were thrown to the ground. The horses in their mad run collided with a huge tree, containing two women and several children. After a long run, in which they narrowly escaped bringing disaster to several wagon loads of old people, the horses were captured.

The injured women, after receiving medical attention, were taken to Salt Lake City.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security and Trust company, 22-34 Main street, $3.50 per year.

ENGINEERS BEGIN ON NEW SIGNAL SYSTEM

Device to Insure Safety of Bamberger Trains Is Being Built.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Under the direction of Signal Supervisor Starratt of the Union Pacific signal system, a force of expert engineers is engaged in the construction of the interlocking system which is being installed at the point where the tracks of the Union Pacific and the Bamberger roads converge near Thirty-second street.

It will be several weeks before the interlocking device is placed at the crossing, and until the work is completed no regular trains can be run over the Bamberger line.

When completed, under the requirements of the district court, which recently settled the matter of crossing, the Bamberger road will purchase the system from the Union Pacific.

The plans of the interurban road are to use this system temporarily until the overhead crossing, which must be done in accordance with the instructions of the court within one year's time.

$60,000 CONCENTRATOR FOR NAPOLEON-MAGHERA

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Don Maguire, president and manager, Leo Kincaid, vice-president; J. H. Kincaid of Springfield, second vice-president; Dr. Frank Carroll, Cedar Rapids, Ia., secretary and treasurer, were the officers elected for the Napoleon-Maghera Mining & Milling company at a recent meeting of the directors of the company, which owns property about twelve miles north of the city.

With Dr. J. E. Chandler, Mariona, Ark., and Dr. William Zapf of Springfield, the officers will compose the directorate. J. E. Dalby was elected assistant manager.

The company has under contemplation the expenditure of a large amount of money on the properties this year in the way of improvements. A concentrator costing $60,000 will be among the improvements.

HUNTSVILLE TO OBSERVE BIRTH OF INDEPENDENCE

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—The little town of Huntsville is preparing to do itself proud in celebration of the glorious Fourth.

A committee of its prominent citizens has been selected by the residents of the town, and a programme has already been arranged which would credit to many places three times larger than Huntsville.

A big parade through the town will be one of the features of the Independence day celebration and an oration by Judge H. H. Rolapp of this city will be given.

After the exercises in the tabernacle the guests were banded and in the basement of the old tabernacle, the first ward social hall and the Mozart pavilion, and over two thousand old people were given the best that Provo affords.

In the afternoon short talks were made by Apostles Lyman, Lund and Richards. Apostle Grant also talked, and he also sang; it was hard to distinguish between the talk and the sing. The day was warm and pleasant, and no accidents happened to mar the enjoyment.

Suit to Quiet Title.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Luceria M. Cooly and J. H. Smith, administrators of the estate of Elizabeth Hawkins, have filed an amended complaint in the District Court against Charles W. Wright in which the question to the title to certain real estate in this county is at issue. When Mrs. Hawkins died in this city, June 4, 1907, she is said by the plaintiffs to have owned the property in dispute. Later a claim was set up by Wright.

The plaintiffs are seeking to have the court to quiet the title to the property and dismiss the defendant's claim.

Child Is Improving.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Little Florence Hope, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hope, of 147 Twenty-seventh street, who broke her right arm one week ago, is improving.

The fracture was of both bones in the forearm and the arm was in a plaster cast. The bones being forced through the flesh. She is now so far recovered that Dr. Conroy, who has been attending her, put the arm in a plaster cast today.

Brown Gets Continuance.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Upon the request of his attorney, the trial of Charles Brown, recently arrested after threatening to kill his wife, was continued until Wednesday morning in the police court. Brown will be required to explain the charges of assault with a deadly weapon lodged against him by his wife last November, prior to his departure from Ogden.

Infringes On Trade Mark.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Before E. F. Richards, justice of the peace at Farmington, Monday the officials of the Western Bottling company were heard in the District Court charged with infringing upon the trade mark of the Ogden Bottling works.

It is asserted by members of the latter company that the other company has been using its bottles, which were filled with an inferior grade of soft drinks, and offered for sale at Lagoon, purporting to have been manufactured by the Ogden Bottling company.

New Voting Machines.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—The County Clerk has been instructed by the County Commissioners to purchase two new voting machines for the Plain City and Huntsville districts since it has been decided to abolish the two voting districts in each place, merging them into one.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY IS IN NEED OF MONEY

Report of Ogden Institution Shows Necessity for Enlarged Fund.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—The Carnegie free library of this city is badly in need of more funds for its maintenance, according to the annual report of the board of directors, which has been prepared for the city council.

Last year the city council appropriated $1000 as a maintenance fund for the institution. Although an effort has been made by the board to secure from the city a similar appropriation this year, that body has not as yet acted favorably, owing to the present low ebb of the city's finances.

Incorporated in the report just submitted to the board, directly is a request that the council set some time for a visit to the library, when an inspection can be made and the needs of the institution can be determined.

The statistical portion of the report shows that there are now 6052 volumes in the library; that its population has increased wonderfully during the past year is shown by the total circulation, which reaches 35,672 for the fiscal year.

The cash on hand at present is $453.23, while the total liabilities amount to $445.54.

OGDEN POLICE PROBABLY WILL WORK EIGHT HOURS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—At an adjourned session of the City Council last night the police committee, to which had been referred the matter of placing the police department back on the old eight-hour basis, reported to the council. It was recommended that this action be taken, and it was approved by the City Council.

Chief of Police Browning sent in a recommendation asking that Sergeant Charles Pincok be reduced to a patrolman. It is understood that this action is taken for the purpose of cutting down the expenses of the department.

The recommendation was referred to the Police committee. Should it be decided favorably it will leave the department without a sergeant.

The Fire committee recommended that hydrants be placed in the middle of the business blocks and that the water mains connecting be not less than eight inches. Councilman Flvare announced that the waterworks company was now ready to accept the recommendation of the fire insurance underwriters of the city, who secured a reduction in the rate several days ago.

An ordinance creating a curbing and guttering district No. 1, which is on Twenty-fifth street, between Jackson and Taylor avenues, passed the third and final reading tonight. This work will cost the city, according to the estimates of the City Engineer, $84,655.

The recommendation of the Committee on Public Grounds, the old city hospital grounds and buildings thereon, at the corner of Twenty-eighth street and Adams avenue, were ordered sold at public auction to the highest bidder.

Councilman Flvare introduced a resolution asking that action be taken at once to secure the removal of former Mayor Conroy and Browning, to be hung on the walls of the City Council chamber along with those of other former Mayors. The resolution was unanimously adopted. Other routine business completed the session of the Council.

LUCAS IS BOUND OVER ON BURGLARY CHARGE

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—Thomas K. Lucas, but recently released from the state penitentiary after serving a term of imprisonment on the charge of burglary, is in the county jail awaiting the action of the district court, when he will be placed on trial for two other alleged burglaries.

He appeared before Judge Murphy of the police court Tuesday morning and was given a preliminary hearing in regard to his connection with attempting to break into the T. B. Evans grocery on Washington avenue and another attempted robbery of a store the same night.

After hearing the testimony of Sergeant T. W. Watchman, Pincok, former Patrolman Morrissey, the court held that a probable case had been made out and ordered Lucas held under $500 bond.

OGDEN BRIEFS

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 30.—The friends of George M. Hanson, who was suddenly stricken with an attack of uraemic poisoning, necessitating his removal to the hospital Monday afternoon, are pleased to hear that he is recovering consciousness and is reported to be improving rapidly from his illness.

Beginning July 1 extension work on the Harriman lines will be resumed, it is announced. The work was stopped several months ago, during the financial depression. Already gangs of men have been sent to the Athol hill cut-off in Colorado and along the road where the proposed extension will lead up the North Platte river. In a short time, it is also reported, work on the double tracking of the Union Pacific out of this city will be started again.

Joseph L. Rice, a prosperous farmer residing at Pleasant View, was arrested Tuesday by a deputy sheriff, charged with an assault and battery committed upon the person of his wife last Sunday morning. His wife is the complainant. When the criminal case is disposed of Rice will have to figure in the divorce court, as his wife has begun an action for a legal separation on the ground of cruelty.

Marian H. Costley has filed in the probate division of the District court a petition asking for the appointment of herself as guardian of the persons and estates of four minor children who are beneficiaries of an estate left by their father, valued at $14,000, which consists mainly of real estate in this county.

A number of motions for new trials were heard in the District court Tuesday by Judge Howell, all of which were refused.

LEHI NEWS NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

LEHI, June 30.—Mr. and Mrs. James Harwood are celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. Among their children who are present are J. T. Harwood, the Salt Lake artist; Don Harwood, practicing lawyer at Salt Lake; and Fred Harwood, director of music in music conservatory in Mexico, Mo.

Mr. Harwood, who is 74 years of age, was born in Shepperton, Norfolk, England. Mrs. Harwood was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and was born in Oldham, England, eight years after the death of her husband. They were both among the first settlers of Lehi, the Harwoods coming in 1822 and the Taylors the year following.

Agricultural Superintendent Parley Aythi returned today from an inspection of the best fields of Utah. He says that the sugar-beet crop never looked better elsewhere in the state, but he criticizes a bumper crop. Especially is the stand promising in Lehi, Provo and Payson. The season of the year, led the entire crop up finely, and the thinning has now all been completed. The water supply, which has been abundant, has been back in the mountains by the cold spring rain, and it is thought that the supply will be ample to mature the crop.

PROVO NEWS NOTES

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, June 30.—The City Council, at its regular meeting last evening, passed an ordinance giving the superintendent of waterworks supervision over the sewer system of the city. The ordinance was introduced in the council by Councilman Flvare, and was passed by a vote of 10 to 2. The ordinance was passed by a vote of 10 to 2.

IS TRAMPLED UPON BY A FRIGHTENED HORSE

Special to The Tribune.

STERNHOLM, June 30.—Edward Sternholm, a Norwegian employed in the Utah Salt mine, while returning home on horseback at about 4 o'clock this afternoon was seriously injured in a runaway accident. As the horse was traveling down the hill, it fell, throwing Sternholm over its head and causing him to land on the lower several feet in front of the frightened animal. The horse, regaining its feet, dashed madly down the hill and struck Sternholm, planting one foot on his neck, badly crushing it and dislocating the lower jaw, and another foot on his breast, causing internal injuries. Dr. J. A. Hensel was immediately summoned, and the injured man was taken to the hospital. His recovery was pronounced doubtful.

Joseph Means Dead.

Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, June 30.—Joseph Means, an old resident of this city, died today of heart failure, superinduced by dropsy. In his eighty-seventh year, he was a native of Ohio, coming west in 1851, and for the last thirty years had resided here. He was a carpenter, and up until three years ago followed that trade. Since that time, however, he had been cared for by the county. He is survived by three sons, all of whom are in the city. One daughter in California. The funeral will be held under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge, of which he was a member, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The remains will be taken to Salt Lake City for interment. The burial will be at Mount Olivet cemetery.

Riddle of East Brigham street, who Monday night, was attacked by Emma Steer, well known in the circles in which she moves, is staying in the city, where he is being cared for by another person, and denies that he shot at her or into the air. When the woman's mother and her sister double-teamed it upon the night watchman he struck Mrs. Steer a blow in the face, he says, that sent her reeling into the street.

STEVE ADAMS PUTS UP PLEA OF POVERTY

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., June 30.—A petition was presented today in the Steve Adams trial by the counsel for the defense, asking the court to enter an order permitting the defense to subpoena witnesses in the case at the cost of the state, based on the plea that the defense was without money and unable to bear the burden of this cost. The counsel stated that unless the state stood this expense the defense would be unable to produce the bulk of its witnesses.

The prosecution opposed the request, and the court took it under consideration. Blank subpoenas have already been issued for the witnesses for the defense, but so far no record has been made of the number of witnesses or their names.

When court adjourned for the noon recess there were eleven jurors in the box who had been passed by both sides on the examination for challenges for causes. The exercise of the right for peremptory challenges, of which each side has thirty, resulted in the exclusion of four jurors up to noon, two for the prosecution and two for the defense. It is thought that several days will be consumed before a jury is finally made up.
